Working, Living and Being Well Health and Safety Conference

Together with Nokiiwin Tribal Council, G'minoomaadozimin – We Are Living Well Health & Safety Initiative is hosting this unique full-circle health & safety conference which allows people to gain the knowledge and tools necessary to assist their workplaces and communities in finding a safe and healthy balance moving forward. Join us for two days of learning, engaging and positive reinforcement where participants will leave feeling prepared and excited to be the change they wish to see in their workplaces and communities.

Join us for the kick-off event to the Working, Living and Being Well Health and Safety Conference

Being Well – An Inside Job

November 27th, 2018 | 6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Victoria Inn Hotel and Conference Centre | Embassy Ballroom | Thunder Bay, ON

Dr. Steve will be guiding us through the road map of healing, utilizing teaching and breathwork, to raise awareness and resilience, as well as having us tap into the power of our own inner healer.

Dr. Steven Fonso is an author, owner and holistic health practitioner. He has served the community with over 110,000 office visits, helping people heal anxiety, PTSD, exhaustion, and other conditions of stress. He also runs workshops and day events both locally and internationally. He lives in Thunder Bay with his wife and 3 children, and has recently opened a holistic fitness boutique that runs small group resilience classes based on fitness, movement and breathing practices.

Hosted by: G'minoomaadozimin - We Are Living Well Health & Safety Initiative & Nokiiwin Tribal Council
